Dear friends

2013 got off to a great start with our special BBQ on the farm (15 minutes from school) with all the international and exchange students (26 in total) plus their host families. Some of our New Zealand students also came. At the start of 2013 we have students from China, Germany, Papua New Guinea, Japan, Sweden, Belgium, Denmark, France and Brazil.

Our first day trip for the year was to the Nga Manu Bird Sanctuary. This is always very much enjoyed. See pictures below.

In March we welcomed our Sister School, Nguyen Tat Thanh High School in Hanoi, Vietnam to Horowhenua College. The visit included day trips between Palmerston North and Wellington, including a visit to Parliament, Te Papa, Massey University and UCOL, local Marae, Bird Sanctuary, a local farm, and time in the classroom with student buddies and special classes for Outdoor Education, Maori Culture and Art. The visit was a great success. Students from Horowhenua College are planning to visit NTT in Hanoi in April 2014.
